

Nominate Someone You Know for the Class of 2009

Leadership Roanoke Valley (LRV) provides each participant with the maximum opportunity for professional and personal growth, while broadening their network base in a fun environment.

LRV is a 10-month course comprised of educational programs developed and implemented by the participants themselves. These programs are designed to identify, educate, and encourage action in areas including: state and local government, economic development, quality of life, education, and community involvement. For more information, visit www.roanokechamber.org, click on Leadership Programs.

Why participate in LRV?

- Build your leadership skills
- Develop a diverse business network
- Prepare for challenges facing our region
- Increase your community awareness
- Improve the region's quality of life

"The LRV program offers our employees a chance to learn more about our area and to forge key links with other leaders. It is an excellent forum to investigate pressing issues and offer constructive solutions which can build and improve our community."
