

Become a State Farm Agent

The State Farm Agency Opportunity

I am eager to speak with you about the amazing State Farm Agency Opportunity. Start a unique career that allows you to be who you are and run a business your way. As a State Farm Agent you are an entrepreneur growing a business with your name on it. State Farm provides continuous support to you, the agent, throughout your entire career. Not only is this an unprecedented opportunity, it's an opportunity to be a part of one of the strongest and most recognized brands in the country.

What is the Opportunity?

- We provide $30,000 in signing bonuses! Other benefits include paid training, pre-existing revenue and generous commission structure on new business.
- We offer a full spectrum of banking, financial, and insurance products tailored to meet the protection and wealth building needs of your clients
- State Farm agents are financial and insurance professionals specializing in planning, protection, and relationship building.

What is the role of a State Farm Agent?

A State Farm agent is an independent contractor agent who markets and services State Farm insurance policies and financial products. Your responsibilities would include, but not be limited to:

- Represent and market one of the most recognized brands in America.
- Marketing State Farm insurance products and financial services.
- Developing and managing a quality book of business.
- Providing products and services based on customers' needs.
- Providing professional customer service.

What do I need to become a State Farm Agent?

- A passion to service people and help others achieve and maintain financial wealth.
- An entrepreneurial drive to succeed.
- A desire to write your own paycheck and control your future. The potential for financial wealth is unlimited.
- Prior insurance industry experience is not required.

The process for selection is exploratory and includes a career understanding seminar and an approval interview. Once approved, you decide when and where you would like to open an agency.
